

REGISTRATION:

$35.00

(Register BY March 21, 2012, to be entered in the $100.00 cash drawing!)

Holiday Inn

3006 CARAWAY ROAD
JONESBORO, AR 72401
WWW.HOLIDAYINN.COM

TO BOOK ROOM CALL:

870-935-2030

*MUST IDENTIFY YOURSELF AS BEING W/AJOA

INVITE SOMEONE

NEW!

PASS THIS ALONG TO A FRIEND OR COLLEAGUE!

EACH COUNTY
PLEASE BRING
AT LEAST ONE
DOOR PRIZE!!!!!!

(PLEASE ATTACH THE DONATOR'S NAME AND CONTACT INFO TO EACH PRIZE.)

CONTINUING EDUCATION

Up to 12 Continuing Education Hours are available upon successful completion of the conference (i.e. participation through attendance, submission of completed registration forms). Statements of credit (certificates) will be issued upon successful completion of ALL sessions held during the conference.

QUESTIONS?

ADAM ELLIS
AJOA PRESIDENT
@ 501-266-1589
AEllis@LCJD.ORG

AJOA

PRESENTS

SUPER BOWL
2012

SPRING 2012 CONFERENCE

MARCH 28-30

SUPER GOAL

2012

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 28 (2 hours available)

9:00AM – 12:00PM – “PRE-GAME COMMENTARY” (Registration & Meet the Vendors)

1:30–2:15 – “CONFERENCE KICK-OFF!!!” (Welcoming Remarks/Business Meeting/Elections/President’s Award Ceremony)

2:30–4:30 – GAME 1 : “TEEN ABUSE OF BATH SALTS & SPICES” (2 hours)

This session will introduce participants to NEW teen drug trends, including the use and abuse of bath salts and spices! Don’t miss this new information!
Coaches: Fran Flener, State of AR Drug Director & Chris Harrison, Chief Illicit Lab Chemist – AR State Crime Lab

8:00 – ??? AJOA 5TH QUARTER TAILGATE PARTY!!! Come on out for MUSIC, DANCING, & FUN!!!

SPONSORED BY YOUR FRIENDS AT

THURSDAY, MARCH 29 (6 hours available)

8:00AM–10:00 – GAME 2: “DIARY OF A SCHOOL SECURITY OFFICER” (2 hours)

Jack Sample is a former juvenile officer with years of experience working with troubled youth. As Director of Security now for a school district in Jonesboro, come hear his tales of what he is seeing within the schools and the issues many of our youth are facing daily.

Coach: Jack Sample, Director of Security/Truancy Officer, Nettleton School District & Amy Reed, Social Worker & Nancy Gribble, Health & Wellness Coord.

10:15–12:15 – GAME 3: IQ VS. EQ (EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE) (2 hours)

Emotional Intelligence is a concept that classifies an individual’s ability to manage his/her emotions in constructive ways. Unlike IQ which is generally believed to be relatively constant over time, EQ can be refined and improved over time. This session will provide juvenile officers with the opportunity to evaluate any given situation through the EQ lens! Coach: Duane Runyan, Ph.D., MBA/CEO & Managing Dir. Rivendell Behavioral Health Services of AR

12:15–1:45 – AJOA SPRING BANQUET LUNCHEON!!! Come on out for FREE FOOD & FUN!!!

SPONSORED BY YOUR FRIENDS AT

1:45–3:45 – GAME 4 : “INSIDE THE MIND OF A JUVENILE JUDGE” (2 hours)

This is one class you CAN’T afford to miss! This session will include a round table discussion between juvenile judges from around the state and YOU! Do you have a question that you have not been able to answer? Need some advice on a tough case? Now’s your chance to ask!

Coaches: Judge Phillip Whiteaker & Asst. Juvenile Judges

4:30 – ??? – PINNACLE POINTE POST-GAME PARTY @ BRICKHOUSE BAR N’ GRILL

SPONSORED BY YOUR FRIENDS AT

APPETIZER BUFFET LIVE ENTERTAINMENT & MORE!

FRIDAY, MARCH 30 (4 hours available)

8:00AM–10:00 – GAME 5: GENDER SPECIFIC ISSUES & REHABILITATION (2 hours)

Can we truly affect rehabilitation without catering to the specific needs of each juvenile? Is our current juvenile court model working? This session will feature a panel-discussion and answer these questions and many MORE! You cannot afford to miss this class!

Coaches: Faye Shepherd, Juvenile P.O./FINS/Community Resource Coordinator & Scott Tanner, Coordinator, Juvenile Ombudsman Division, AR Public Defender Commission

10:15–12:15 – GAME 6: “READING RAILROAD” & VOLUNTEER PROGRAMS (2 hours)

This session will provide an overview of different volunteer programs used to equip juveniles with necessary skill-sets in achieving the goal of rehabilitation! Stick around for awesome door-prizes to be given out during this class! Coach: Faye Shepherd, Juvenile P.O./FINS/Community Resource Coordinator

12:15–12:30 – “POST-GAME COMMENTARY” (2 hours)